CITY MANAGER CLUB FORMED FOR WORK HERE

Representative Citizens Organize League to Obtain City Manager.

EFFECT ORGANIZATION

Membership Campaign Will Start Next Thursday Night.

Formal organization of a City Manager club for the purpose of placing Waco in the progressive list of American cities employing a city manager was accomplished Thursday night. A meeting of fifty representative men in the Cameron building assembly hall adopted by-laws for the organization and elected the following officers: J. M. Penland, president; J. J. Hutchison, vice president; Robert Dupper, secretary; A. J. Garrett, treasurer.

All citizens of Waco are eligible to membership. There are no dues. An executive committee of fifty to handle the details of the educational campaign of publicity and speaking decided upon will be selected at an open meeting of all members next Thursday night.

Robert J. Potts, W. W. Woodson, J. M. Penland, Dr. K. H. Aynesworth and S. Hirschberg gave short talks favoring the vigorous action of the club in pushing the single idea of accomplishing a city manager plan for Waco and urging the utmost democracy of membership and organization.

"Every successful business has a managing head," said Hirschberg. "The city of Waco is the biggest business city in Waco. A business manager will give the city an economical administration by reducing overhead costs and directness of action."

The proposal advocated by the club would place the direct control of city departments under a single head called a city manager, appointed by unsalaried commissioners on a basis of his knowledge and fitness for the executive job of handling the city's business.

Membership cards will be distributed within a few days and all new members are invited to next Thursday's meeting. The assembly room of the Chamber of Commerce has been obtained for the meeting.

Among citizens who have expressed interest in the club either by becoming members or stating they would do so are: Sam Hanna, S. N. Mayfield, W. W. Woodson, G. H. Zimmerman, K. H. Aynesworth, Frank Crow, Dr. K. H. Aynesworth, W. A. Poage, E. Goodman, G. V. Rotan, R. B. Dupper, J. M. Penland, W. R. Killingsworth, J. J. Hutchison, W. Crawford, W. H. Hoffmann, William Reese, J. W. Taber, A. J. Garrett, J. L. Herrington, J. W. Hampton, J. L. Kessler, Charles E. Marsh, S. Hirschberg, Dr. Carl R. Goldberg, R. F. Gribble, Louis Crow, E. W. M. Trammell, J. B. Powers, Edgar E. Witt, E. M. Numan, J. B. Earle, V. C. McIntire, B. F. Wallace, F. J. Trau and T. W. Glass.

Release Brazos Waters to Make Further Tests

The water has been released from the Brazos dam on orders from Dallas, in order to make a series of tests of the dam and lock. Therefore the definite date of the proposed big celebration cannot be definitely stated. Capt. H. F. Harris will make the tests as rapidly as possible, and wants to have the big lake overflowing when the celebration is held. The water was backed up under the first test until it was about twelve feet deep at the dam. It is proposed to make the celebration, when held, the biggest event that Waco has witnessed in a decade.

Y. M. B. L. Makes Effort to Close Excursion List

To close up the list of firms who will participate in the trade excursions of the year, another round will be made by the Y. M. B. L. committee this afternoon, stated Messrs. McPeak and Trau yesterday. Already 105 firms have signed up for the trips, the first one to be made to DeLeon May 10.

The Right Road

THE NEWS will work for a city manager for Waco.

The News believes that the commission plan the city now has is but a half-way step from the even more cumbersome council-manager system of divided authorities and that 1917 efficiency standards demand Waco adopt the most businesslike city form of government.

The city manager in scores of cities thru the United States is demonstrating its superiority over all other forms of government.

THE NEWS proposes to explain the detailed working of city government under the manager plan in future issues. Today we have space only to say this:

The business of governing Waco is the biggest business in Waco and in every voter is a stockholder, whether renter or property owner.

Every complex business built on worth-while lines has a general manager in charge of details to whom department heads are directly responsible. The efficiency of modern business largely depends on the direct quality of one-man management and one-man selection of subordinate heads.

Waco's Trace Family "Tree"

WHEN the city of Dayton, Ohio, prostrate under the terrible flood of six years ago, faced a rebuilding almost as complete as that following the San Francisco earthquake, she looked around for a man who could do the job. She reshaped her government and hired City Engineer Waite of Cincinnati to meet the emergency with the title of city manager. He is still on the Dayton payroll because he has remade Dayton by the quickest and most efficient moves. Under his able management, Dayton would not be rebuilt today.

IN times of vital emergency, the city manager (if a good one is chosen) is the salvation of a city. Why should Waco wait for such an emergency?

The emergency is here in the shape of the wastage of an antiquated system of government.

The News hopes many hundreds of its thinking readers will join the City Manager club and help in the shove that will give Waco a city manager within the twelvemonth.

WACOANS TRACE FAMILY "TREE"

Special to The News. Texarkana, April 12.—Following the publication made several days ago in many newspapers of the south for the address of a mother of a Confederate soldier, Col. Frank M. Thompson of the local camp of United Confederate Veterans has received letters from Louisiana, Tennessee, Arkansas, Mississippi, Alabama and Texas, but only one of the writers was able to tell of a living Confederate mother. This letter was from Gary, Texas, and advised that there is living on a farm in that vicinity a Mrs. Carter, who had a son in the Confederate army. She is said to be a niece of Gen. Albert Sidney Johnston and her age is given as 93 years. Colonel Thompson has telegraphed the postmaster at Gary, asking him to see the old lady and extend to her a special invitation to attend the reception to be given here by the U. C. V. local camp on April 12. The camp will pay all her expenses of the trip.

By Associated Press.

Texarkana, Ark., April 12.—Mrs. E. B. Carter, 93, of Gary, Texas, and Mrs. Martha Baker, 92, of Stamps, Ark., the only living mothers of Confederate veterans that could be found in this section after a wide search, today were guests of honor at a reception tendered by the local camp of Confederate veterans to the Daughters of the Confederacy. Mrs. Carter has a son in the newspaper business at Cushing, Texas. She is a niece of General Johnston of the Confederate army.

Mrs. E. B. Carter is the great, great grandmother of little Anna Margaret Carpenter, 701 Columbus street, Waco, the daughter of T. B. Carpenter. The limb of the family tree, blown so far throughout the south, belongs to the mother's side. Mrs. Carpenter's maiden name was Miss Maud Robinson. The Waco family have traced the lineage through newspaper dispatches and announced yesterday it had been proven correct.

URGE FARMERS TO GROW FOODS AS FIRST CROPS

Chamber of Commerce Plans Week's Campaign Thru Country.

GOVT. BACKING PLANS

To Preach Gospel of Less Cotton and Greater Produce Acreages.

In accordance with the suggestion of the Texas Bankers' association and the United States government authorities, Waco's Chamber of Commerce has planned a week's campaign among farmers of McLennan county for the cutting down of the cotton crop and the planting of larger acreage in grains and foodstuffs. At present this movement is having a widespread plea throughout the entire country and if carried out will have a beneficial effect on the food conditions of the United States.

The committee appointed to carry out this plan expects to start the campaign Monday, April 23, the members making from one to three speeches throughout the county each day during the week. Clarence Osley of A. & M. college will assist.

The full committee has not yet been selected, but at a late hour last night it was stated the following would serve: W. W. Woodson, chairman; J. M. Penland, C. A. Duke, John Gorman of Bosqueville, James Hays Quarles, J. A. Phipps, county demonstration agent; Edgar Witt, T. P. Duncan. Mrs. Kent will lecture on canning clubs.

Red Cross Flag Day Will Be Big Event

Meeting in a big rally this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Red Cross headquarters, members and friends of the organization will plan for the Red Cross flag day in Waco Saturday, April 21. The aim is to make the flag day a predominant event.

Mrs. Howard Mann, general chairman for Red Cross flag day, probably will report committees and other details this afternoon. It will be a busy meeting and all interested are urged to attend.

Flags which are to decorate vehicles on flag day are being sold at headquarters, also made there, and the public may get the flags at 15 cents each or two for 25 cents.

No Free Mounts to Be Provided for Veterans

No free mounts will be provided for the Confederate veterans who attend the national reunion at Washington, D. C., in June, according to information received yesterday by former Commander Gus West of Pat Cleburne camp, U. C. V. The lack of horses will be felt by the old veterans who had expected to participate in parades. Horses will be furnished when veterans pay for them, but not otherwise, it is stated. Some other information contained in the letter made it appear that perhaps the entertainment features might be abridged somewhat, owing to war conditions. Horses have heretofore been furnished free at the national reunions, it was stated by Mr. West. Waco probably will be represented by a number of veterans.

St. Louis, April 12.—Members of the progressive party in convention here declared today that they favored national women's suffrage, prohibition and the initiative, referendum and recall. These views were expressed in the platform adopted. The war position of the United States was also endorsed.

Sentences Are Suspended in Local County Court

Three cases in which parties received five-year sentences in the penitentiary yesterday by juries in the fifty-fourth district court, were converted into suspended sentences. The cases were: Frank Harris, plea of guilty to forgery charge, five years, with suspended sentence; Mary Gaines, theft of more than $50, plea of guilty, five years, and suspended sentence; Pearl Bell, theft from person, five years, suspended sentence.

PINK BULLETIN PLEAS

Thousands of Sporting and News Fans Welcome Late Poster Service.

Baseball fans of Waco express keen interest of the Bulletin, a pink sporting and news poster which made its initial bow Thursday afternoon. Nearly two hundred business houses, open after 6:30 o'clock, carried the Bulletin conspicuously posted.

According to the management of the new service, the sheet in the future will appear promptly at 6:30, giving all fans an opportunity to see the results, in less than thirty minutes after the Texas games have been completed. In addition to the baseball results, short bulletins of late afternoon news flashes is included in the service. Thousands of Wacoans gained their up-to-the-minute sporting and general news information from the Pink Bulletin.

Woman Recalls Cavell Murder—Sent to Prison

By Associated Press. Havre, April 2.—A well authenticated incident which occurred recently during a German court-martial in Belgium has just become known here. M. Paul Terlinde, burgomaster of Rixensart, appeared before the court charged with shielding a wounded Frenchman, for which he was condemned to twelve months imprisonment. His daughter, Baroness de Coninck, a young married woman, whose husband is at the front, was present at the hearing. A German officer sat down beside her, saying: "I believe, madame, I have met you before." Baroness de Coninck replied: "You are mistaken. I don't know you, sir." "Perhaps I am mistaken, saying: 'You are mistaken, but you greatly resemble an English woman whom I knew well.'"

"Evidently you mean Miss Cavell," retorted the baroness. For this answer she was sentenced to one month in prison.

BRAZILIAN SHIPS SUNK

MRS. WILSON'S EXAMPLE

President's Wife to Limit Her Mode of Living.

By Associated Press. Washington, April 12.—Mrs. Wilson, wife of President Wilson; Mrs. Marshall, wife of the vice president; and the wives of members of the cabinet have agreed to reduce their scale of living to the simplest possible form in order to set an example to other women of the country.

To do their part in the movement for the conservation of the nation's time and resources, the women of the highest official families have decided to omit the usual formal entertaining and calling and to reduce to the minimum their social activities so that they will be able to give more time and money to constructive preparedness and relief work.

SAYS U. S. ANXIOUS.

By Associated Press. El Paso, April 12.—The American government and people have reason to be worried until the Mexican congress, which convenes on April 15, has defined its attitude toward the war between the United States and Germany. Elhardo Del Norte, a Carranza organ published in Chihuahua City, declares in its issue of today.

PROGRESSIVES INDORSE WAR.

By Associated Press. These views were expressed in the platform adopted. The war position of the United States was also endorsed.

The Thrill That Comes Once in a Lifetime

BULGARIA AND AUSTRIA SEEK ENTENTE PEACE

Central Powers Send Representatives to Switzerland on Mission.

WAR WEARINESS TELLS

Negotiations Direct With Ardent Attempt to 'Over-head' Germany.

By Associated Press. Washington, April 12.—Austrian and Bulgarian representatives are endeavoring to approach entente diplomats in Switzerland on the subject of peace. Press dispatches developed the fact not only Bulgaria has taken soundings but also that there has been similar actions in the name of Austria-Hungary. Whether the two countries are working separately or together is not known, nor has any reference been made to the attitude of Germany or Turkey.

Officials here see in the Austrian and Bulgarian action merely an expression of weariness with the war and anxiety to bring it to an end. As a result there is every evidence that the informal efforts now being made mark merely a step in the long road that will eventually lead to peace and do not offer hope of real negotiations in the near future.

Independent soundings by Austrian and Bulgarian even if entirely tentative have attracted interest here, however, as showing the dissatisfaction of those two governments with the course of the war and their apparent anxiety to negotiate directly and not through the medium of Germany. As both these countries are reported to be more eager for peace than their more powerful ally, a degree of hope is felt that their exigencies may force Germany to a more moderate stand and bring the day of ultimate peace nearer.

DU PONT SUIT DECIDED.

By Associated Press. Wilmington, Del., April 12.—Judge W. J. Whitaker Thompson of Philadelphia filed an opinion in the United States district court here today deciding in favor of the plaintiffs in the $57,000,000 Du Pont stock suit. The court holds that the acquisition of the stock by the Du Pont Security company was illegal and that the board of directors was disqualified from passing it. The stock was purchased by the security company from Gen. T. Coleman Du Pont for $14,000,000 and is now said to have a value of $57,000,000.

MEXICAN SNIPERS BUSY.

By Associated Press. El Paso, April 12.—American patrols hidden on the border returned the fire of two Mexican snipers, wounding one. The other fled. Later the wounded man was taken toward Juarez in an automobile, accompanied by four soldiers, reports said. A Mexican shot at an American guard at a Mexican viaduct within the city limits of El Paso today. American outposts have received orders to shoot to kill in returning fire of snipers.

TEXAS GUARDS BUSY.

By Associated Press. Elephant Butte, N. M., April 12.—Two strangers were arrested here last night and are being held under guard by a detail of company K, fourth Texas infantry, which is guarding the dam. One of the men said he was an Austrian and the other a German. Men showing the country surrounding the Elephant Butte dam were said to have been found in the possession of the men.

GERMAN SUB IN GULF'S VICINITY

British Ship Reported Sunk Off South Coast of Cuba.

By Associated Press. Key West, Fla., April 12.—The British ship Treval, Captain William Watson, was sunk by a German submarine off the coast of Cuba, four days ago, and all hands landed at the Cuban port of a few hours later, according to C. Peterson, a member of the crew, who arrived here from Havana late today. Peterson claims to be a naturalized American of Norwegian birth.

He declared that the Treval was a full-rigged sailing vessel, proceeding from Jamaica to Cienfuegos for a cargo of sugar for Queenstown, and was off Cienfuegos when the submarine was sighted. He declared that the Cuban papers refused to publish an account of the sinking "because it might do the country harm."

TRACE GERMAN SUB.

By Associated Press. San Francisco, April 12.—The German submarines of whose presence in the Pacific ocean the navy department warned ship owners yesterday, are probably off the Mexican coast, according to a statement made here today by Captain Gilmer, commandant of the twelfth naval district.

CONGRESS OPENS TODAY

By Associated Press. Washington, April 12.—Congressional machinery to grind out legislation to finance the war will begin to turn in the open tomorrow, when the house commences debate on the $7,000,000,000 war revenue authorization measure. It probably will be passed by the house Saturday with only a few dissenting votes.

Will Begin to Grind Out War Machinery Today.

By Associated Press. Washington, April 12.—Congressional machinery to grind out legislation to finance the war will begin to turn in the open tomorrow, when the house commences debate on the $7,000,000,000 war revenue authorization measure. It probably will be passed by the house Saturday with only a few dissenting votes.

Joining Hemispheres.

"For the first time we are coming to war in the old world—except, indeed, when once before we came hither to suppress the barbaric pirates. "It is singular that our present errand is so similar. From our coming over seas. Many consequences will flow. First and foremost we trust for an earlier victory and secondly for a better understanding of the United States by the free nations of Europe and of the free nations of Europe by the United States. This, as I see it, is the largest constructive political need of the world. We come in answer only to the high call of duty and not for any material reward; not for territory, not for indemnity or conquest, not for anything save the high duty to succor democracy when it is desperately assailed. We come only for the ideal, that is, the republic."

From Premier Lloyd-George.

"The United States of America, of a noble tradition, never broken, never have engaged in a war except for liberty. This is the greatest struggle for liberty that they have ever embarked upon. I am not at all surprised when one recalls the wars of the past, that America took its time to make up its mind about the character of this struggle in Europe. Most of the great wars in the past were waged for dynastic aggrandizement and for conquest. It is no wonder that when this great war started there were some elements of suspicion still lurking in the minds of the people of the United States of America, that there were many who thought perhaps that the kings were at their old tricks. Think they somewhat perhaps regarded it as in the nature of a conspiracy of monarchial swashbucklers. What the

BRITISH LEADER IN TRIBUTE TO U. S. A. AS ALLY

Speaks Before Assembly of Notables at London Luncheon.

"AMERICA FOR LIBERTY"

Lauds Traditions of Stars and Stripes and Outlines Menace of Prussianism.

By Associated Press. London, April 12.—As the first British prime minister to salute the American nation as comrades in arms, David Lloyd George, England's great democratic leader, speaking before a notable assembly brought together by the American Luncheon club today, aroused the most intense enthusiasm by his scathing denunciation of Prussianism and his warm welcome of America as an ally in the war. "The advent of the United States into the war," he said, "gives the final stamp to the character of the conflict as a struggle against military autocracy throughout the world."

It was a stirring day, for the taking up of arms by America was celebrated by two notable assemblages, one under the auspices of the American Luncheon club and the other a dinner by the Pilgrims club in honor of the American ambassador, Walter Hines Page. Viscount Bryce, the former ambassador at Washington, presided at the dinner to Mr. Page and delivered an eloquent oration.

Premier Lloyd George, always forceful and epigrammatic, was never in finer form and his ringing words struck a responsive chord among those who had met to cheer. There were toasts to the president of the United States and the king of England, and a wonderful display of rejoicing over the sealing of the bond of friendship between the United States and England and France and other allies.

Warns of Blunders.

A remarkable feature of the premier's speech was his warning to the United States to avoid the blunders committed by the British. "Probably no event celebrated in England in the present generation unofficially brought together more men of great prominence than this luncheon. The Pilgrims dinner had more of a military air, with large patches of khaki and navy blue at the tables. Ambassador Page said in part: "These are great days for the republic. We have set out to help in an enterprise of saving the earth as a place worth living in. There is no need to restate the meaning of this enterprise to you. What is new about it is that it now becomes our immediate American enterprise. The clear, solemn call of the president and the voice of congress is to us the high call of duty. If there be an American in this room who has not volunteered to give any service that he can without thought of consequence or of pay, I don't see him."

CITY LIMITS SETTLED

Agreement Reached in Suit on Collection of Taxes.

Injunction suit of C. H. Higginson against the city of Waco, by which the plaintiff sought to stop the collection of taxes on certain property which had been brought into the city limits in South Waco under the new charter, yesterday afternoon was settled by the following agreement: "By agreement of all parties in open court, the injunction heretofore issued herein shall be perpetuated as to all property owned by the plaintiff situated west of east line of Nineteenth street and lying between north line of Speight street and south line of Dutton street. As to other lands described in petition, the injunction is by mutual agreement of all parties hereby dissolved. Costs taxed against defendant, city of Waco."

By Associated Press.

The settlement of this suit will allow the city to collect between $20,000 and $40,000 in taxes which it has been impossible to collect heretofore, as many property owners awaited adjudication of the suit in the courts, the impression prevailing at one time that the entire new territory might be involved in a long litigation.

GUILTY HUSBAND'S MURDER.

By Associated Press. Amarillo, April 12.—Mrs. Florence Reynolds of Canyon, Texas, was found guilty in the state district court here today of the murder of her husband on September 16, 1916. The jury fixed her punishment at twenty years imprisonment.

The defense contended the shooting of Reynolds, who was killed while hunting with his wife, was accidental.

United States of America has made up its mind finally makes it abundantly to the world that this is no struggle of that character but a great fight for human liberty.

Stamp of Militarism.

"They naturally did not know at first what we had endured in Europe for years from this military caste—Prussia is not a democracy. The Kaiser promises that it will be a democracy after the war. I think he is right. But Prussia not merely is not a democracy; Prussia was not a state; Prussia was an army. It had its great institutions, its great universities, it had developed its science. All these were subordinate to the one great predominant purpose of an all-conquering army to enslave the world. The army was the spear point of Prussia—the rest was the gilded haft."

"This is what we had to deal with in this old outworn country. It was an army that in recent times had waged three years, all of conquest, and the incessant tramp of its legions through the streets of Prussia, on the parade grounds of Prussia, had gone to the Prussian head."

"The Kaiser, when he witnessed it on a grand scale at his reviews, got drunk with the sound of it. He delivered the law to the world as a new pastor on Sinai delivering the law from thunder clouds. But make no mistake, Europe was apprehensive."

Europe Oppressed.

"This is the menace, this is the oppression from which Europe has suffered for fifty years. It sapped the benefits and the equities of all states which ought to have been devoted and concentrated on the well being of their peoples. They had to take into account this menace which was their constant pre-occupation, as a cloud ready to burst over the land."

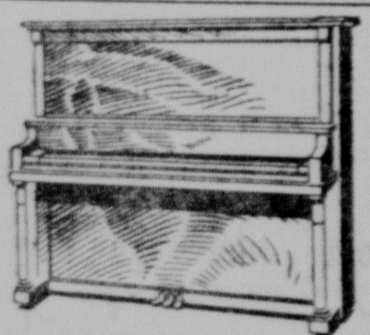

"The most characteristic of all Prussian institutions is the Hindenburg line. A Hindenburg line is a line drawn on territories of other people, a warning that the inhabitants of those territories shall not cross it a peril of their lives. That line has been thrown across Europe for fifty years, in many lands."

"But Europe, after enduring this for generations made up its mind, at last, that the Hindenburg line must be drawn along the legitimate frontiers of Germany."

"The Hindenburg line was drawn along the shores of America and Americans were told they must not cross it and America said, 'What is this?' 'America said 'the place for that line is not the Atlantic but on the Rhine and we mean to roll it up.' 'America has started."

"There are two great facts which clinch the argument that this is a great struggle for freedom. The first is the fact that America has come in. She would not have come in otherwise. The second is the Russian revolution. 'I have been asking myself the question: Why did Germany deliberately in the third year of the war provoke America to this declaration and to this action? Deliberately, resolutely! Answer has been afforded by General von Hindenburg himself in a very remarkable interview which appeared in the press."

"He depended really upon one of two things, namely, that the submarine campaign could have destroyed international shipping to such an extent that England would have been put out of business before America was ready. According to his computation, America could not be ready for twelve months. He does not know America. He is confident in the alternative that when America is ready at the end of twelve months with her army, she will have no ships to transport an army to the battle.

Ships Spell Victory.

"The road to victory, the guarantee of victory, the absolute assurance of victory has to be found in one word—ships, and a second word, ships, and a third word—ships. I believe that Germans and their military advisers are already beginning to realize that this is another of their miscalculations which is going to lead them to disaster and ruin."

"You will pardon me for just emphasizing that we are a slow people—slow and blundering—but we get there. You get there sooner. That is why I am glad to see you in. We have been in this business for three years. We have made, as we generally do, every blunder. In consequence we have got thru every blunder. Now we are right out on the course."

"May I respectfully suggest that it is worth a good deal to study our blunders so as to begin where we are now. In war time is everything, time has a tragic significance. The step which we are taking today may lead to a sure victory; taking it tomorrow may avert disaster."

U. S. Winning Arms.

"America has helped us even to win the battle of Arras. She has been making guns, making ammunition, supplying us with fuel, supplying us with shells and she has got all of that organization and that wonderful feeling of the great people who inhabit that great country. It was a bad day for the military autocracy in Prussia when it challenged the great republic of the West. We know America and we also know that now she has said it and will do it. She will wage a strong and successful war and there is something more important, she will insure a beneficent peace."

"America is going to win a right to be at the conference table when the terms of peace are discussed. That conference will settle the destiny of nations and the course of human life for God knows how many ages. It would have been a tragedy, a tragedy for mankind if America had not been there and there with all her influence and her power."

Sees Everlasting Peace.

"I can see peace, not a peace to be a beginning of war, not a peace which will be an endless preparation for strife and bloodshed, but a real peace. When this war began two-thirds of Europe was under autocratic rule. Now it is the other way about and democracy means peace. The democracy of France hesitated; the democracy of Italy hesitated long before it entered; the democracy of this country sprang back with a shudder and would never have entered that caldron had it not been for the invasion of Belgium and if Prussia had been a democracy there would have been no war."

"It is written of those gallant men who won that victory on Monday, from Canada, from Australia and from this old country—it has proved that in spite of its age it is not decrepit—it is written of those gallant men that they attacked at dawn. Fitting work for the dawn—to drive out of forty miles of French soil those miscreants who had defiled her freedom. They attacked with the dawn. It is a significant phrase."

Turkey Came First.

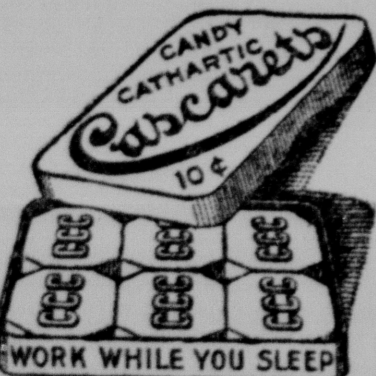

"With it there came the breaking up of the despotism of Turkey, who has for centuries acted as a cloud to the sunniest lands in the world. It has freed all Russia from an oppression which has covered it like a shroud for so long. And there is the great declaration of President Wilson. The great nations represented in the struggle for freedom, they are the heralds of the dawn. They attacked with the dawn and those men are marching forward in the full radiance of that dawn, and soon Frenchmen and Americans, British and Russians, aye, Serbians and Belgians, Montenegrins and Rumanians will emerge into the full light of a perfect day."

SNOW IMPEDES THURSDAY'S WAR

Despite Elements, British Troops Deliver More Telling Blows.

(By Associated Press.)

In spite of rain and snow and a forty mile gale, the British troops have again delivered telling blows on the German line southeast of Arras and to the north of the German portion of the Vimy ridge. The bad weather has extended to the front held by the French and Thursday saw no activity there except in the nature of reciprocal bombardments.

The latest British gain southeast of Arras gave them the villages of Heninel and Wancourt and adjoining defense works and also permitted them in this region to cross the Cojeul river and take the heights of the east bank of the stream. The Canadians made additional progress on the Vimy ridge. The Berlin war office admits the capture by the British of Monchy-Leez Preux Wednesday, but says attacks north of the village and on Vimy and Fampoux were repulsed with heavy casualties.

Of Thursday's fighting the German official communication says British attacks near Souchez and Fampoux failed. It adds that twenty-four British and French aircraft were lost on the western front during air fighting Wednesday.

Comparative quiet prevails in all the other war theatres. No infantry attacks have been reported but there has been considerable artillery activity on the Austro-Italian front and in Macedonia between Monastir and Cerna river.

Holland will continue to maintain her policy of armed neutrality, according to an address by the Dutch premier in the first chamber of parliament. "We suffer from the submarine war and blockade policy," said the premier, "but we do not deviate from our policy of strict neutrality and readiness to defend our soil against any one attacking us."

Amusements

EUTERPEAN CLUB IN NEW OFFERING.

The sensation of the day in the piano field is Perry Grainger, the young Australian, who appears at the Auditorium Monday night, April 23, under the auspices of the Euterpean club. Though he is one of the most universally and internationally popular composers of the day, he is no less a born virtuoso. He is supreme in the great dimensions of Bach, Brahms, Tscholkowsky, Debussy, yet equally at home in the half lights of Debussy, Ravel and Cyril Scott. He is considered the greatest interpreter of Grieg's music. The Chicago Daily Journal says: "He walks upon the stage as though he had just made a 200-yard drive in golf and was in pursuit of the ball. He plays in that precise mood. It is a very sane, invigorating style of playing, this open air manner of his, to say nothing of the fact that it is practically perfect from a technical standpoint, and has an enormously emotional impulse besides."

"PRIDE" SEEN AT HIPPODROME TODAY.

While based upon a morality theme, the "Seven Deadly Sins," of which "Pride," showing at the Hippodrome theatre today and tomorrow, is far removed from the type of "Everyman." The action of the Seven Deadly Sins occurs in the present. There are no allegorical figures to typify "Envy" and "Pride" and other sins. Instead these evils are portrayed by men and women of today whose characters are the embodiment of such sins. Opposed to them are noble characters played by the great stars of the seven features. The star of "Pride" is Holbrook Blinn, the actor who has already won a safe place for himself in the actors' Hall of Fame. He is sincere, powerful, and always effective, and as the illegitimate son of a woman high up in society, he is a character to be remembered. A false pride keeps him from acknowledging the truth of his birth, even when it would be the salvation of a young girl who is entirely innocent of any evil. But after the tense drama of the plot, the climax finds D'Arcy paying for his false pride in a way that he dreams not of. This is one of the most impressive of the Seven Sins.

ORPHEUM BILLS 5 ACTS AND PICTURES.

Five vaudeville numbers at the Orpheum, together with a film "The Blue Streak," make Manner Harrison's offering this week-end one of the best of the season. The reasons are: That the Carrie Sisters, as instrumentalists, take their place among the best vaudeville numbers offered by the Orpheum this season. Their playing has a catching way about it which, added to the "rag" introduced in several of the numbers, holds the audience throughout the performance. It cannot be said that any other musical offering at the Orpheum this year has been better.

Scheck and his dogs, billed as the fifth vaudeville stunt, make the program one of unusual excellence. "Hawaii's Famous Truth Girl," billed as the newest dancing novelty, is prettily executed, in true Hawaiian style, the settings being of unusual excellence. Jennings and Barlow Sisters put a tinge of humor into the program with a "Merry Mirth and Melody." Then come Brennan and Cleveland with "Bits of Foolishness." It may be said, however, that the offering of the Carrie Sisters is "worth the price of admission."

Perhaps It's Here

Justice T. E. Johnson yesterday held an inquest over the body of Forbio Sandara, a Mexican, who died suddenly at 402 South First. Death resulted from paralysis.

Argument of the case of T. R. Watson, convicted here of the murder of State Commissioner of Insurance and Banking John S. Patterson, has been postponed a month. The argument will be before the court of criminal appeals. Hon. L. T. Williams, who is leading counsel for Harry J. Spanell, cannot appear on the date originally set, hence the change of date of argument, by agreement.

The Adult Bible classes of Waco will hold the regular monthly meeting at Morrow Street Methodist church tonight. Rev. Horace Williams will preside.

E. W. Handker has been chosen as the speaker for the Lawyers' Luncheon club at the meeting to be held in the gold room of the Hotel Raleigh at 12:15 noon next Saturday. Mr. Handker's subject has not been announced.

Dr. R. H. Hodges, city food and dairy inspector, announced yesterday that Richard Hudson, a state food inspector, had found evidences of adulteration in some samples of milk collected around Waco. Samples were collected by Mr. Hudson.

A miniature dipping vat has been made by the Portland Cement association and placed in the Chamber of Commerce. It is peculiarly interesting just now, when strenuous efforts are being made to secure a tick eradication appropriation for this county.

Bulletins are to be posted by the Chamber of Commerce regarding committee and other meetings which are to be held in that center of activity. Blanks have been prepared and will be used week by week.

Oil investigations in the vicinity of Waco still are being carried forward by interested parties. There is talk of drilling another well in the western part of the city, where oil in considerable quantities has been found, and lands also have been leased east of the city.

"Flowers already are being taken from parking places and yard borders in large numbers," said Joe S. Thompson yesterday. "With the public plucking flowers in such a manner, it is discouraging to home owners and city beautifiers. Parents should train their children to not touch flowers in the yards or parks without permission."

Brass fittings taken from the Bellmead yards of the Katy railroad—and brass is almost as expensive as a certain other yellow metal now—has put two young men in bad with authorities. The brass, valued at $55, was recovered by Detective R. H. Hall, who also arrested two young men on charges of theft of over $50, a felonious charge. The young men are in jail. Their names are J. F. Mitchell and W. T. Sutton.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR NOTES.

A luncheon, in charge of the Christian Endeavorers of the Central Presbyterian church, will be given at the Y. M. C. A. as a feature of the program to be staged by the Christian Endeavorers of Waco in connection with the Clarence C. Hamilton rally Tuesday, April 17.

A meeting for children of junior and intermediate Christian Endeavor ages will be another feature. This gathering will be in the afternoon and will be in charge of Miss Lillie Minnock. The gathering proper will also be held in the evening at 8 o'clock at the Central Christian church.

The Christian Endeavorers of the Morrow Street Methodist church will decorate the banquet hall at the Y. M. C. A. and the Central Christian Endeavorers will decorate their own church. Misses Ruth Dennison and Loreine Hamilton have charge of this.

Waco Speakers Endorse Equal Suffrage in U. S. A.

Waco Speakers' club met in the Chamber of Commerce last evening to observe the following program: Address on "Border Life," by J. Bates McKinney; debate upon "Resolved, that congress should amend the constitution of the United States so as to include woman suffrage."

The affirmative representatives were C. H. Machem and Albert C. Johnston, while the negative was upheld by A. M. Smith and Ed Johnston. The judges favored the affirmative, voting Speaker Ed Johnston special mention. The program committee announced the following program for next meeting: Oration by J. Ward Dutton. Debate upon "Resolved, that congress should pass a law providing for selective conscription."

The Y. W. C. A. membership campaign, which has been conducted for three days with one thousand renewals as the goal, closed yesterday with the following showing: Mrs. Tom McCullough, 209; Mrs. W. W. Woodson, 155; Miss Grace Frather, 100; Mrs. W. D. Lacy, 97; Mrs. R. G. Patton, 91; Miss Minnie Taylor, 86; Mrs. O. E. Arbuckle, 81; Mrs. J. H. Sturgis, 72; Mrs. A. C. The captains were assisted by strong teams, and their efforts far exceed the showing made. The second year in this kind of campaign is the hardest year, and the result exceeded expectations.

MRS. GLADDEN HALL FOR MISS CLARA EVANS.

Mrs. Gladden Hall, Twenty-fourth and Ethel, entertained a number of Miss Clara Evans' friends on Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Evans' approaching marriage. Although it was called a garden party, it proved to be a shower of a most unique kind. All those invited had brought potted plants and pot flowers. The table showed a miniature garden plot, with blooming pot plants of all kinds and colors. The ice cream was served in tiny flower pots, with a pink or white rose sticking in it. Mrs. Hall's mother, Mrs. J. Hamlett, helped serve. Among those present were Mesdames Gladden Hall, W. H. Gohagen, Ernest McKinnie, Charles Evans, E. C. Standerfer, Leonard Stone, Perry Duncan, A. L. Elliott, W. G. Evans, Henry Quinius, W. M. The cottage, which is in waiting, is located at 2014 Ethel St.

Miss Alice Brazelton was hostess yesterday in honor of Mrs. Harry B. Gorman, nee Miss Fay Clinton, a bride of February. Mrs. Gorman's return from her wedding trip came during Lent, and Miss Brazelton took this, the earliest date, for complimenting the returned bride. Bridge was the diversion of the afternoon, Miss Marion Duncan winning a string of beads as consolation and Miss Maizie Turner a bottle of perfume as head prize. Miss Brazelton presented a basket ornamented in Dresden flowers to her honoree. The card room was decorated with roses and carnations, a color scheme of pink and lavender being carried out. Luncheon was served buffet style.

MERRY MATRONS HAVE ORPHEUM PARTY.

Davis, and Mrs. John Dollins were the only guests outside the club. Gray is the next hostess to the Merry Matrons, two weeks hence.

Use Coconut Oil For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition be careful what you wash it with. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mislified coconut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless) is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the scalp and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mislified coconut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

TO KILL INSECTS

(Furnished by State Dept. of Ag.)

By Associated Press.

Austin, April 12.—A great effort is being made to raise more food and feed crops since this nation is at war and because there is a general shortage in these crops. Many farmers realize the importance of this great move and a greater variety of crops will be planted than ever before.

It has been the experience heretofore that a greater variety of crops in a garden or field also brings a greater variety of insect pests and plant diseases. In order to make all these crops yield to the utmost growers must learn something of the nature and habits of the various pests that prey upon these plants and must have everything in readiness so as to strike the insects effectively before any material damage has been done. Spray material and pumps should be on hand so that an application of an insecticide can be made with the least delay.

Many insects can be kept down by prompt hand picking. Others can be caught on trap crops or under small board traps. For those species that chew the foliage Paris green or arsenate of lead should be used when the pests are so numerous that hand picking can no longer be resorted to.

For plant lice and other sucking species, contact sprays containing oil, soap or nicotine, or a combination of these ingredients should be on hand.

It is well for growers to get all the information possible on insects from the chief entomologist of the state department of agriculture at Austin, or from other institutions, so that no time may be lost in coping with serious insect outbreaks.

FERTILIZER A PROBLEM

By Associated Press.
Atlantic City, N. J., April 12.—The National Fertilizer association announced today as a measure of defense the appointment of an advisory committee to make a thorough survey of the industry to ascertain stocks of raw materials on hand, together with an estimate of what will be required for a period of one year beginning July 1. These figures, says a statement by the executive committee, "will be used in any way that may be of service to the government or the industry to maintain normal production of fertilizer, without which food production in the United States would be reduced to an alarming point."

MART CROPS ARE FINE

M. S. Wade of Mart was here yesterday. Mr. Wade reported a fine rain Wednesday. Crops, he said, are looking fine in this rich section of McLennan.

Business, he stated, is gradually improving, and after the people get accustomed to the idea of war, Mr. Wade thinks business will be better than it was when the uncertainties of war were hanging over the country.

NORMAL YIELD CERTAIN

Port Worth, April 12.—Secretary Dorsey of the Texas Grain Dealers' association believes that the rains will insure a normal yield this year, though the moisture came too late in some sections of Southwest and Central Texas to be of any benefit.

Dallas, April 12.—Another rain in the course of the next two weeks will bring chances for better than normal grain crops, particularly wheat, in the Texas belt, according to a statement here today of W. C. Barrickman, secretary of the Texas Industrial congress.

Rains in the last forty-eight hours, extending over practically all North and East Texas, have reached as far south as San Antonio, although there the precipitation has been light. These rains, Mr. Barrickman said, had checked deterioration in the wheat crop.

The falls of the last two days were the best growing rains of the season. The heaviest precipitation was 1.12 inches at Houston and 1.04 inches at Palestine. Dallas and vicinity has had a total fall of .83 inches.

Mr. Chambers said today the firm would throw all its resources into the war. He personally will enlist in the British army.

GRAIN PRICES UP

(Associated Press Report.)
Chicago, April 12.—Amazing flights took place in prices for wheat and corn. Demand for cash wheat was so urgent especially from export milling interests that May delivery rose 11 cents above yesterday's finish, far surpassing all previous top records. The market closed at $2.17 1/2 and July at $1.89 1/2. Corn gained 6 1/2¢ to $1.29 1/2, and provisions 15¢ to 2 1/2¢. The wheat market, however, was characterized by a period of the outburst during a brief period at the outset, when prices in the southwest temporarily eased new crop of the wheat pit were reached in the last 15 minutes. Corn sympathized with wheat strength, but at first was the leader in the upward movement of prices. The independent advances of corn were based on reports that scores of distilleries would be used exclusively for the manufacture of denatured alcohol from other cereals. Provisions swung upward, influenced chiefly by the rise in corn.

BEST SEASON'S RAIN

By Associated Press.
Fort Worth, April 12.—Texas and Oklahoma grain belts received their best growing rain of the season Tuesday night and Wednesday and with it a corresponding betterment in the wheat outlook. In Wichita county, one of the best grain sections of the Southwest, the precipitation, according to reports here today, was sufficient to revive the great fields of grain. Westward from this city to Stanton, almost half way to El Paso, similar favorable reports are given. From the greatest wheat growing section of the state, the Panhandle from Fort Worth to Amarillo, comes news of timely rainfall.

Paducah, for instance, received what is characterized as the first beneficial rain since last November. Not a great amount of grain, however, is grown in the immediate vicinity of Paducah, Putnam, Falls, Sweetwater, Abilene, Stamford, Knox City and Anson, near all of which the grain is a money crop, announce rains that will save the grain.

FIELD WORKERS MEET

By Associated Press.
Austin, April 12.—Acting upon a telegram from Commissioner of Agriculture F. W. Davis, who is now en route home from St. Louis, where he attended a meeting of commissioners with Secretary of Agriculture Houston on the food problem, J. W. Neill, director of the farmers' institute for the department of agriculture, today issued a call for a meeting of the field workers of the department to meet at Port Worth next Tuesday. At this meeting steps are to be taken in accordance with the program at the Fort Worth meeting, that is the conservation of food products and also to encourage planting of more foodstuff and less cotton.

RAIN INSURES WHEAT

By Associated Press.
Oklahoma City, Okla., April 12.—Gentle rains which have fallen in practically every section of Oklahoma during the last twenty-four hours have greatly benefited Oklahoma's wheat crop, according to a statement issued this morning by President Frank M. Gault of the state board of agriculture. The sky is still overcast and prospects are favorable for more rain today.

This rain, according to Mr. Gault, will serve to check the high winds of the past week and give the wheat a chance to recover. The fact that the rain fell slowly and cloudiness has prevailed in every section will allow the plant to obtain the fullest benefit.

In certain sections of Northwestern Oklahoma where the drought has been the most severe in many years and where the high winds practically ruined the crop on some farms, an average yield may yet be expected where enough of the plant was left standing to insure profitable handling.

The rain of yesterday was general and more or less sustained in the districts between Davis and Bristow and El Reno and Holdenville. Last night substantial rains fell at Lawton and Elk City, Clinton, Hobart, Anadarko, Chickasha and Ardmore.

In the northwestern section around Woodward and Alva, a wheat growing section, heavy rains are falling this morning.

KANSAS FARMERS HAPPY

By Associated Press.
Topeka, Kan., April 12.—Kansas farmers, particularly in the wheat belt, were more optimistic today over crop conditions than they have been in the last four months. The moderately heavy rain which fell throughout the Central Kansas wheat belt last night and early today has done a great deal to revive winter wheat, according to experts here.

ARGUMENT FOR TRAINING.

THE medical sharps at Harvard university have discovered that of the freshman class of 746 members only one-fifth can stand properly, walk properly or carry themselves properly.

The docs say that this is a very serious matter because these four in every five young men that are thus mistrusting their spines are thereby laying themselves open to disease and robbing themselves of half their efficiency.

The 746 are typical youths from all parts of the country. If four in five of them are wrong, probably four in five of all the rest are just as wrong.

A little military training would have corrected all this and brought the young men up to physical par.

IF WE ONLY COULD.

THE popular chatter about "ground

hog day" has set the naturalists to renewed study of the woodchuck in connection with that great natural mystery, hibernation.

The science sharps have long known that the bear and the bat, the bug

and the bass, the toad and the snake put on much fat in the fall, retire to winter quarters and come out in the warmth of spring scrawny, having lived solely on their surplus grease.

Having fear of the bear, the snake and such, for investigation purposes,

the scientists have selected the wood-chuck to investigate, as safer. He has a tail so short that he can't squirm around and bite you when you take hold of it.

They don't say that this is the reason that they're particularly pitched into the woodchuck but what they've done to him is enough.

When the chuck retires to hibernate,

he stops breathing, but his heart beats

on, slowly. Hold him under water and he will not drown. Remove his brain and his entire spinal cord, and his heart will go on beating for twelve hours. Cut off his head, and his heart goes right on for three hours.

What have they discovered about the great mystery of hibernation? Nothing saves that it is life under suppression of the great nerve ganglia.

They've cut up one perfectly good chuck after another, and still can't tell how a fellow can go on living with a vacuum stomach and practically no brains or backbone. You can see what a godsend such a discovery would be, in these times, can't you?

With that discovery and one by which a fellow could run his flivver on raw wind and decent blasphemy, we'd be pretty near ready to abolish the hereafter.

Pointed Paragraphs.

Any man who doesn't want what he hasn't got has all he wants.

If a man could discover why a woman is a mystery she wouldn't be.

There is nothing like having a good reputation—if you live up to it.

Never judge the dimensions of a woman's brain by the size of her hat.

Have a good presence and be your own letter of recommendation.

A red haired woman has as much right to call her hair golden as a fat woman has to call herself plump.

Knowing things that are not so is the worst kind of ignorance.

No man is wise enough to ignore the things his wife can teach him.

The pork packer has a queer way of doing business. After killing a hog he cures it.

When a woman says that her husband is perfect it is a safe bet that she hasn't been married three weeks.

Never judge a man by the patches on his clothes. Perhaps he has had to buy spring outfits for his wife and seven daughters.

Often a woman makes so much fuss

over another woman's baby that you almost think she means it.

HOW TO WRITE

By DR. FRANK CRANE.

We don't like a book that tells us something entirely new; we like a book that tells us what we already know.

The object of writing is not to impart information, but to stimulate the reader's mind.

The most read book in the world, and one of the oldest, is the Bible. It is prized because of its moral instruction. And yet every moral truth in it was in us also. It utters humanity.

Within us float myriads of dumb half convictions, nebulous ideas, incipient convictions, partly glimpsed en-thusiasms. The writer is appreciated who makes these vocal and clear.

When you read a thing and lay it down and exclaim: "There! That's what I have always thought, only I could not say it," you have paid the author one of the greatest compliments.

Straining after novelty is sure to lead to bad writing, perhaps to "literature," and one who starts out to write

"literature" is rather sure to write nonsense.

The best ideas in the world are the old ones. To make them new and vibrant with life is art.

The most interesting thoughts are those that are the commonest property of all men; not the rare, unusual, morbid, or bizarre. If you can find out what everybody feels and can say it for them in lucid terms, the souls of all readers leap to you.

The wisest man in the world is Everybody.

The unstrained and unguilted writer seeks for strange and outlandish subjects, yet tells of them in the old banal forms. You must have originality, or rather personality, in your style, together with universality in your theme.

Personality in style is gained only by rigorous loyalty to yourself. You must avoid the worn platitudes, the faded types of expression, and write succinctly in your own language.

In style there is no master. It must be your very own, the flavor of your own life.

To write well, therefore, first listen to mankind, know people, appreciate and understand the commonality, for here are the deep, ever fresh springs of eternal human interest.

Second, when you see the truth

clearly write it down in your own way, as simply and forcefully as possible.

Add to these infinite practice, "no day without a line." Just patient, hard work—and perhaps you can learn to write.

ANNE'S LITTLE POOR FRIENDS—ONE OF A FEW

This Must Be the Sunshine Angel Who Helps Make World Go 'Round.

(This is the fourth and last of a series of "Anne's Little Poor Friends," written by Anne Austin for The News.—The Editor.)

By Anne Austin.

I have a friend. I go to her when I am happy. I go to her when I am sad, when I am lonely, when I am tired, and when I have nothing to do and when I have too much to do. She never fails me.

I see her only from behind her sewing machine, and hear her voice usually above the whir of its stitching. She never scolds me when I sit idle and take up her precious time with my ceaseless chatter. She seems to have all the time in the world to give me, but she just keeps right on stitching, snipping and bustling, for that is the way she makes her living.

And then sometimes she rolls up her bright scraps, pats the finished garment lovingly, with never a sigh because its beauty doesn't belong to her. Then she ties a perky little bow on the small daughter's head, gets out her dainty hand-made waist, brushes her carefully tended coiffure with its distinctive air of being just right, touches her clear, fresh, girlish skin with a tiny bit of rouge, fluffs up her mass of brown curls, then demurely ties them down with a saucy veil, and hies forth to meet her big two hundred-pound husband in town for a gay frolic, consisting of a visit to the movies, a sightseeing tour through the shops, with her dressmaker eye open for hints and fashions, but her economical purse persistently closed to the allurements of all bargain counters.

The Big Treat.

The only bit of extravagance she allows herself, and she twinkles all over with the idea of it, is a gorgeously pink strawberry ice cream for herself and the small daughter, who curls her thin little legs around the big stool and sips with long, contented sighs the cherished Saturday treat. A stroll, lover fashion, with the big husband and the tiny daughter make the "end of a perfect day." She laughs deliciously as she slices the cold home-made bread for the late supper, talking in little happy, short sentences about what a nice time she has had. Her "best dress," which is very nice indeed, for my little ninety-pound friend has the best taste in the world when it comes to dress or to anything else, is covered in a crisp, candy-striped apron, for never a spot must sullify it. It shall do duty again next year, with my friend's skillful fingers to transform it.

Then, when the big husband, satisfied with having done his duty by his family, betakes himself to his rest, the little lady sits down with her daughter and gets out the Sunday school quarterly, the big family Bible and the little lesson cards which the little girl brings home so proudly. Then quite patiently my little lady goes over and over the knotty points in the lesson, both for herself and for the little student at her side. Then when the last hard name can be pronounced and the golden text is on the tip of both their tongues—for the little lady is a Sunday school teacher, and takes her duties very seriously and sweetly—away trots the little girl to bed and the "Sunday school teacher" puts her pan of water on the gas to bathe her face, before conscientiously applying the restorative creams, which have helped her happy disposition to keep the light of youth and the tinge of wild roses in her cheeks.

Then on Sunday.

And she is pleased to look upon as she hurries on to her church, her one little girl being joined by other Sunday-dressed-up little girls, their pink ribbons and blue ribbons, shiny patent leather shoes and stiff white skirts spelling little-girl pride and happiness in every flirt and flutter. And so she is happy. She seems to me literally to love her neighbor as herself. No malice in her heart ever takes away from the pleasure she has in her pretty dressmaking, in her neighborhood friends whom she doesn't have time to visit but whom she delights to entertain across the sewing machine. It never occurs to her to complain with the poverty which has gripped her ever since her pretty blue eyes opened on a world where she has been able to find happiness. She seems to have been happy always, yet she has the comfortable sort of happiness which seems to spread out and creep into the sore and bruised hearts of the neighbors who bring her their heartaches and their petty troubles.

Idle Wives

THREE DAYS STARTING SUNDAY

AT THE

HIPPODROME

Only sweet, inconsequent, wholesome gossip can bridge that sewing machine, for there is something in her wide blue eyes which seems to stop the ugly things which people bring in on their ready tongues. She works from morning until night, but never rubs her head and groans, "Life is awful; it's not right for a woman to work so hard." She can't be said to have taken up her "cross," for it has never occurred to her that it is a cross. She just does what comes to hand to do, and the fact that more than half of the earning of a livelihood for her family has come under her slim hand doesn't "phase" her one bit. She took her husband for better or for worse, and the fact that most of it has been worse in a financial way could never be told from the serene, humorous, kind eyes.

True as Gold.

She is a firm little mother, with the best trained child in her neighborhood as an eternal monument to her character, which she herself would never think of as unusual. I try not to spoil her, but sometimes I have to tell her how adorably sweet and helpful she is, but she stops me with a merry laugh and a quick disclaimer.

She is an ornament to her poverty, which has never crushed her in the least. She has friends in the best grades of so-called society, who are glad to have a fitting with the nicest little dressmaker in the city. And the kindness of her heart keeps her from the self-assertion which would let her change her "ladies" as she smilingly calls them, an adequate sum for her careful services.

I am happier for knowing her, and proud to be seen in the tiny little house with its shabby wall paper and its rather disordered rooms, for the little lady is far too busy to keep an immaculate house. I wish you could know her, for she is "a light to lighten the Gentiles," and the glory of it is that she doesn't suspect it.

WACO DADS IN PROVISION FOR PAID FIREMEN

Take Steps Yesterday to Correct Risk Situation as to Local Fires.

Complying with urgent requests from representatives of insurance companies doing business in Waco, and with requests from the state fire insurance board as well, the city commission yesterday afternoon provided a paid fire department for the city, purchased $20,000 worth of additional equipment, arranged for the installation of additional fire alarm boxes and took other steps to put the department where insurance companies thought it ought to be.

The paid fire department will increase the annual tax budget about $10,000 a year, it was stated yesterday afternoon by Fire Commissioner Ben C. Richards, who has taken a keen interest in the movement for betterments.

Bond Issue Provided.

A bond issue of $25,000 to carry out the plans for betterment was approved early this month by Waco taxpayers. The paid fire department will be provided about the first of May. The chief will receive $175 a month and the first assistant will receive $100 a month.

Two Seagrave pumps were bought at a cost of $17,000, together with 5,000 feet of hose.

The Waco fire department now is practically on a motor driven basis except that there is one horse-drawn steamer at the South End fire station and the aerial truck at Central station also is drawn by horses. The chief's car will be a chemical car, ready for use any time.

Ordinances Passed.

Necessary ordinances to make fire regulations more effective were passed, one of those being an ordinance preventing the stopping of vehicles within fifteen feet of fire plugs.

The insurance men who were present yesterday stated plainly that they wanted to know what Waco intended doing.

Insurance Heads Here.

Among the visiting fire insurance company representatives were M. G. Jarreau of the German-American insurance company, Wirt Leuke, special representative of the North-British and Mercantile, W. G. Ackenbach, Continental Insurance company; R. M. Anderson, National Insurance company; F. E. Goodwin, Liverpool, London and Globe.

Mayor John Dollins, Fire Commissioner Ben C. Richards, Commissioners Harlow, Stamp and Allen assured the visitors that Waco wanted to cooperate, and had taken the practical

Here's a chance Miss Freckle Face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable dealer that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles; while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.

Simply get an ounce of othine—double strength—from any druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine as this is the prescription sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

steps to that end when the bond issue was carried.

Richards' Recommendations.

The recommendations of Fire Commissioner Ben C. Richards, bearing on the situation, were presented prior to passage of ordinances and were as follows:

"To the Honorable Mayor and Board of Commissioners, City of Waco: Gentlemen—I hereby recommend the passage of the following ordinance in regard to a paid fire department for the city of Waco, which if passed will save the key rate of the city from being raised from 21c to 27c. I know that the mayor and board of commissioners and the citizens of Waco feel very grateful to the volunteer fire department that has been so faithful and so efficient in the past in doing their duty, which they have done at all times, but this is not a matter of choice, but an absolute necessity to do all in our power to prevent the key rate from being raised in the future and in having the paid fire department we will save the taxpayers of Waco a considerable amount of money each year. For this reason I recommend the adoption of the inclosed ordinance.

"I also recommend that the North Ninth street station be closed as soon as we get the other stations equipped with motor apparatus and the pumps that have been ordered, because with the motor equipment and pumps at Bosque Boulevard and Herring avenue the district of North Ninth street will have practically the same protection, and in closing the North Ninth street fire station the key rate will not be affected, provided we follow the instructions and recommendations of the state fire insurance commission of the state.

"I also recommend that there be employed a master mechanic for the fire department, as I think this would be a big saving to the city in the end and would be a protection to the motor apparatus.

"At the present time there will be required sixty-four men to put in a paid fire department and the difference in the cost of the paid fire department and the volunteer department will be $10,000 a year. This will give us plenty of men at each station to cope with any fire.

WORKING BOYS' CLUB.

The Working Boys' club met last night under the direction of Dr. R. H. Hodges and the following program was carried out: Debate, "Resolved, That the United States should have control over the railroads and telegraph stations." The affirmative won.

WHAT IS GOUT—AND RHEUMATISM?

By Dr. M. C. LUCAS.

In 1848, Sir Arthur Garrod, proved that in gout (also true in rheumatism) there is deficient elimination on the part of the kidneys. Uric acid in excess is carried by the blood and deposited in and about the joints where an inflammation is set up in the soft tissues, nearby.

Dr. Levison and Dr. Strauss hold that a long continued disturbance of kidney function, resulting in uric acid accumulation in the blood, is the cause of gout. And Prof. H. Strauss, attributes a gouty attack to the heaping up of poisons where there is an abundance of uric acid which is precipitated in the joints and sheaths, setting up inflammation. Before the attack of gout or rheumatism there is sometimes a series of disturbances, such as headache, or what is thought to be neuralgia, or rheumatic conditions such as lumbago, pain in the back of the neck, or sciatica. As Prof. Strauss says, "The excretion of uric acid we are able to effect by exciting diuresis." Drink copiously of water, six or eight glasses per day, hot water before meals, and obtain Anuric tablets, double or triple strength, at the nearest drug store and take them three times a day. It is just as important to keep the kidneys active, to throw out the uric acid poisons as it is to stimulate the liver to greater action to throw out the poisons which accumulate to an excessive amount in the bowel. Throw out this waste material by occasionally taking a pill made up of May-apple, aloes and jalap, and commonly sold as Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets for the past 50 years and you will escape nine-tenths of the ills in life.

CEMETERY BIDS SUBMITTED TO CITY COUNCIL

Other City Affairs Taken Up at Meet of Commission Yesterday.

Bids on land designed for a new cemetery for Waco were submitted at the meeting of the city commission yesterday, also bids on the four proposed permanent bridges. The commission recessed from the morning session until yesterday afternoon to take up some of the matters left over from the morning meeting.

Commissioner W. H. Cockcroft, who retired yesterday morning, being succeeded by Bryant Allen, was presented with a magnificent gold-headed umbrella, the gift of Mayor John Dolins and other officials and employees of the city. The presentation was by City Attorney John Maxwell. Mr. Cockcroft responded feelingly, taking occasion to thank the people of Waco for the honor they had conferred on him in the past in selecting him as commissioner.

Commissioner Bryant Allen took the set made vacant by the retirement of Commissioner Cockcroft.

Commissioner Ben C. Richards was elected mayor pro tem, and thanked the commission for the honor. He has been a very active member of the commission.

When the cemetery bids were presented Charles King spoke to the commission about the advantages of Park Lawn, adjoining Oakwood cemetery, offering to co-operate with the city in almost any manner to get the benefits of this cemetery. Several different offers or suggestions were made whereby Park Lawn might be utilized.

A statement was submitted by Jake Turey regarding delinquent tax collections.

An amendment was passed changing the time for which appointments are to be made for building inspector and weights and measures inspector from two years to one year.

Wesleyan Federation at Morrow Methodist Church

The regular monthly meeting of the Adult Wesleyan Bible classes of Waco will be held tonight at 7:45 at Morrow Street Methodist church, Rev. Horace Williams presiding. ACCEPT PLANS FOR NEW FIRM

Four-story Building to Be Erected for Williams
Dry Goods.

Plans yesterday morning were accepted for a four-story building for the Williams Dry Goods company at the northeast corner of Sixth and Mary streets. Plans were drawn by Ross & Cason, architects.

Bids will be received as quickly as specifications are ready and the work rushed. The new building probably will be of reinforced concrete construction. It will front 100 feet on Mary and run north 165 feet. The cost is estimated at $35,000.

The wholesale dry goods company, composed largely of Waco stockholders, will be ready for business by the time the new building shall have been completed.

AUTO MEN IN GASOLINE TRIP OF 150 MILES

$35,000 Worth of Cars
Cover Trade Territory
Yesterday.

Thirty-five thousand dollars' worth of Waco's representative automobiles, filled with eighty of the city's best boosters, on the auto and accessory men's initial trade trip, yesterday covered 150 miles of Central Texas' richest territory. The trip consumed the better part of the day, the cars leaving the Raleigh at 8 o'clock and returning at 6:30.

From the first until the last stop, every town turned out big crowds to greet the "trippers." At several of the places visited the public school children cheered the long parade of cars. Souvenirs and advertising matter were distributed at every station. A special trade trip edition of The News, carried along on the trip by the big Republic truck, was passed free to the spectators.

Immediately upon arriving at a town, the Parker Baylor band rendered selections for the citizens and James Hays Quarles delivered a short address, dealing with the nature of the trip and inviting the people of the town to visit the trade in Waco.

China Springs. Twenty-four cars traveling only a few yards apart and led by an Oakland Model 90, the official committee car, arrived in China Springs on schedule time. Ten minutes was the time allotted for the stop and promptly on the dot the "trippers" started for Clifton, the next station.

Clifton.

At Clifton after spending a short time in the business section, the line of cars, piloted by a local committee, drove to the high school and the band played several tunes for the students.

Valley Mills was the next stop. James Hays Quarles made a short talk and Rev. E. D. Head, introduced by Earl Noble of the Valley Mills First National bank, responded by welcoming the guests.

In the Afternoon.

In the afternoon stops were made at Crawford, McGregor, Moody, Eddy, Bruceville, Lorena and Hewitt. The regular program was carried out at each town and a cordial welcome was received in each instance.

Included in the Party.

Many Oil Prospectors Around Mineral Wells

Reporting that the country around Mineral Wells, in Palo Pinto county, is literally alive with prospectors for oil and gas and also with speculators, John Sleeper is at home from a stay in this great Texas resort.

Mr. Sleeper reports that some fine oil and gas strikes have been made, with the consequent excitement and attendant development.

To Relieve Catarrhal Deafness and Head Noises

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or head noises go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Par-mint (double strength), and add to it 1-4 pint of hot water and 4 ounces of granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day. This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should be open, breathing becomes easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.

Mrs. Gillespie is a daughter of Mr. Cornwall, and with her husband will remove to New Jersey, their home being near enough for Mr. Gillespie to reach New York each morning for business.

BAPTIST SERVICE WELL ATTENDED

Additional Conversions Reported from Services
Yesterday.

Three additions, two by baptism and one by letter, were the results of a sermon preached last night by Rev. L. J. Mims of Brownwood, who is conducting a revival at the Clay Street Baptist church in the concerted effort in evangelism made by seven of the Baptist churches of Waco. The attendance was larger than any time since the meeting began. The evangelist's had as his subject "The Soul's Hiding Place."

At James Street.

The theme of an evangelistic message delivered last night by Rev. W. W. Melton at the Seventh and James Street church before a large audience. There was one addition to the church. A quartette from the Baraca class furnished the music. The choir is under the direction of Nathan V. Morgan.

Speaking before the largest audience that has assembled since the revival began, Rev. J. M. Dawson of the First Baptist church preached last night on the subject, "Elisha Smiting the Jordan." Seventy-eight were present at the prayer meetings held in the homes of several ladies of the church. Prayer services will be held today by the ladies at 3:30 o'clock in their respective districts. The ordinance of baptism will be administered tonight immediately after the sermon.

At Brook Avenue.

"The Unsaved State and Condition" was the subject of the Brook Avenue revival service led by Rev. J. E. Billington. One conversion and one addition to the church resulted. Four prayer meetings were held by the ladies of the church in their respective districts and five are to be held today. Tonight Rev. Billington will speak on "The Transgressor's Way Is the Hard Way."

The service held at the Hippodrome daily from 12:15 to 1 o'clock sharp will be conducted this morning by Rev. W. W. Melton.

Wife's Testimony Cause of Claude Parr's Rearrest

After drawing five years sentence in the Fifty-fourth District court and getting a suspended sentence, a few days ago, Claude Parr yesterday afternoon was re-arrested and placed in jail. His wife also is in jail, having been convicted in the Fifty-fourth district court yesterday afternoon of conveying weapons to the jail when her husband was first taken there. Mrs. Parr was given two years when convicted yesterday.

Parr and his wife are alleged to have stolen an auto here, and it was on this charge that Parr made a plea of guilty a few days ago. His wife's testimony in the case tried yesterday, it was stated, led to the second arrest of Parr on a charge of conspiring with his wife to escape from jail by use of weapons.

PURITY AND POWER

Necessary to Overcome Impure Blood and Weak Conditions.

The recent trying weather, exposure to storms, the grip, hard colds, pneumonia, fevers, diphtheria and other blood-poisoning, prostrating diseases leave the whole system subnormal—below par—weak and slow—blood depleted and thin, with that tired feeling, poor appetite, delicate digestive power or almost none at all.

The ideal treatment is Hood's Sarsaparilla—to be taken before meals—thoroughly to purify the blood and expel poisons, and Peptiron Pills—to be taken after meals—to put power into the blood, give strength, increase red corpuscles and restore normal health-tone.

Hood's Sarsaparilla has for 40 years won and held the favor of the people. Peptiron Pills are named from peptin and iron—and include nux and other good blood and stomach tonics. Be wise and begin on this sensible, reliable course of medicine today.
